

BIRDS IN THE MARINE ENVIRONMENT

Research from the South West and beyond

Saturday 22nd February 2014

University of Exeter

Cornwall Campus

PROGRAMME

09.30	Registration
10.00	Welcome & Introduction
10.10	The private life of Gannets: What tracking has told us about Europe's largest seabird	Dr Stephen Votier, University of Exeter
10.40	Marine renewable energy and birds	Dr Lucy Wright, BTO
11.10	Break
11.30	Multiple methods for studying pelagic seabird movements	Holly Kirk, University of Oxford
12.00	The Isles of Scilly Seabird Recovery Project	Paul St. Pierre, RSPB
12.30	Lunch
14.00	Seawatching: seaside pastime or scientific strategy	Dr Aonghais Cook, BTO
14.30	Colour ringing Great Black backed Gulls on Looe Island	Bruce Taggart, CBWPS
15.00	Tea & Coffees
15.30	The Falmouth Bay to St Austell Bay Special Protection Area	Richard Cook, Natural England
16.00	Identifying flyways and foraging hotspots of migratory seabirds off southwest UK	Dr Russell Wynn, National Oceanography Centre
16.30	Conference Round-up
17.00	Close

EXHIBITORS

Natural History Book Service
HandyKam
BTO
RSPB
CWT
West Cornwall Ringing Group
University of Exeter Student Posters
Photography Exhibition